

Examples of Past ARTSMASTERS Events

Les Miserables | PNC Broadway Across America - Pittsburgh 12.13 Season

- Musical Theatre masterclass with two members of the Les Mis cast and 70 students from Creative and Performing Arts High School (CAPA) 6-12.

Ballets du Trockadero de Monte Carlo | Pittsburgh Dance Council 12.13 Season

- Female ballet style workshop for men, led by the company Ballet Master with 30 students from Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre's School.

Anything Goes | PNC Broadway Across America - Pittsburgh 12.13 Season

- Postcard Production, designed by Roundabout Theatre. Over 75 students from Gowanda High School worked with 7 cast members on various aspects of live performance, including acting, set design, costumes, marketing, sound and light design, and more. The event culminated in a performance with all departments collaborating on a scene from Anything Goes.

Abraham.In.Motion | Pittsburgh Dance Council 12.13 Season

- Open Community Workshop for Pittsburgh-area dancers to learn techniques and choreography from company dancers.
- Lecture and Demonstration for CAPA 6-12 dance students, who watched selections from the performance and learned the inspiration, choreography, and ideology behind the performance.
- Movement Workshop with students from Dreams of Hope, a Pittsburgh-area LGBT support organization. Students learned how to express themselves through movement and feel connected to other individuals through dance.

War Horse | PNC Broadway Across America – Pittsburgh 12.13 Season

- Community Workshop featuring puppeteers from the production of War Horse. Participants learned the background behind the construction of Joey, and practiced with balloons and dial rods putting movement and life into puppets.

STOMP | PNC Broadway Across American – Pittsburgh 12.13 Season

- The entire STOMP cast gave an abbreviated performance and a long Q&A session with over 100 students from the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf.

