

2010 Terre Grillo

With a gold color and a faint green cast, this wine has ripe apple and citrus aromas with pretty floral overtones. The flavor follows with strong nectarine that is backed up with good minerality in a fairly lengthy finish.

2011 Argiolas Costamolino

This wine is lemon-green in color with intense yet delicate aromas of lemon oil, pineapple, honey and sea breezes. On the palate, it has a delightfully zesty acidity and a slightly chalky texture.

2009 Tasca d'Almerita Regaleali Rosso Nero d'Avola

Ruby-red color, this wine offers layered notes of sweet balsamic, cherry, mulberry, raspberry and vanilla. It is complex and supple, with ripe berry flavors and silky tannins.

2009 Argiolas Costera

With a Bordeaux red color, this wine is reminiscent of the sea. It has some blackberry fruit flavors, but mostly what comes through is a briny spiciness and a bracing dryness.

Wednesday,
November 7, 2012

Italian Islands

With speakers Jacob Bacharach and Milko Miladinov

