

2005 Durbanville
Sauvignon Blanc

This South African wine has flavors of tropical fruit, fig, guava and gooseberry. It should be served only slightly chilled to best enjoy the full flavor palate.

2005 Sauvignon
Republic Cellars
Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc

With flavors of gooseberry, nettles and fresh cut herbs, as well as celery and tropical fruit, this wine is complicated and aromatic.

2005 Montes
Malbec Reserve

Made in Chile, this is a full bodied, dry red with flavors of singed sugar, vanilla and herbs. It finishes with smoky, spicy tannins.

2004 Penfolds
Shiraz Koonunga Hill

This Australian wine has an intense plum color and aromas of blackberries and cinnamon. On the palate, it has berry fruit flavors and a balanced finish.

Wednesday,
October 4, 2006

Wings of the Southern Hemisphere

