

Dear Corporate Partner,

I am pleased to share that on March 2, 2019 at Heinz Hall, the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra (PSO) will be presenting the second annual Lift Every Voice concert as a part of its ongoing neighborhood partnership with the Hill District. The PSO is proud to partner with the AACCP as a supporting partner of this special concert and we hope you will be able to join us!

Last year's exhilarating performance, hailed by the Post-Gazette as "a celebration of joy that heightens the spirit," was a beautiful celebration of the cultural legacy of the Hill District. This year we are thrilled to focus the Lift Every Voice performance on phenomenal women who relentlessly push the boundaries of artistic expression. Joining the PSO on stage this year will be our host and Pittsburgh native Demeatria Boccia; Sphinx Competition winner, 21-year-old violinist Adé Williams; vocal soloist Anqwenique Wingfield; the Lift Every Voice Unity Choir; and more featured artists soon to be announced!

As partners in the Pittsburgh community, we hope you will join us for this special event. In addition, we would be grateful if you would consider one of the following partnership opportunities.
